Concertos for Christmas

A feast of Baroque concertos performed on period instruments, capturing the warmth and vibrancy of the composers' soundworld. Soloists step in and out of the ensemble, sharing the spotlight in a heady combination of chamber music and virtuosic display.

Admission Free - Retiring Collection for Friends of Alalay.

Friends of Alalay (registered charity number: 1123425) works with Bolivian street children, offering them love, a home, education and encouragement in their future working lives. We finance educational and self-financing projects: helping street children to help themselves. Every donation goes directly to the kids, nothing is spent on administration.
